Parfitt Drive

The Hadleigh Park estate was built in the late 1990s. Parfitt Drive was named in commemoration of the pilot, Reginald Parfitt and the crew of the Halifax bomber which crashed on the outskirts of the village on 6th July 1944 with the loss of all those on board.

578 Squadron website

Parfitt Drive Oak (left)

Parfitt Drive Maple (right)

Plaque 1 (left) and Plaque 2 (right)